Isaiah 53 (CEV)

Has anyone believed us
or seen the mighty power of the Lord in action?

2 Like a young plant or a root
that sprouts in dry ground, the servant grew up
obeying the Lord.

He wasn't some handsome king.
Nothing about the way he looked made him attractive to us.

3 He was hated and rejected;
his life was filled with sorrow and terrible suffering.

No one wanted to look at him.
We despised him and said,
"He is a nobody!"

4 He suffered and endured
great pain for us,
but we thought his suffering
was punishment from God.

5 He was wounded and crushed
because of our sins;
by taking our punishment,
he made us completely well.

6 All of us were like sheep that had wandered off.
We had each gone our own way,
but the Lord gave him
the punishment we deserved.

7 He was painfully abused,
but he did not complain.
He was silent like a lamb

as quiet as a sheep
having its wool cut off.

8 He was condemned to death
without a fair trial.

Who could have imagined
what would happen to him?

His life was taken away because of the sinful things my people had done.

9 He wasn't dishonest or violent,
but he was buried in a tomb of cruel and rich people.

10 The Lord decided his servant
would suffer as a sacrifice to take away the sin
and guilt of others.

Now the servant will live to see his own descendants.
He did everything
the Lord had planned.

11 By suffering, the servant will learn the true meaning of obeying the Lord.

Although he is innocent,
he will take the punishment
for the sins of others,
so that many of them
will no longer be guilty.

12 The Lord will reward him with honor and power
for sacrificing his life.

Others thought he was a sinner,
but he suffered for our sins
